Dear Bruce,

I write to thank you very much for presenting your workshop on Using Concordancing in English Language Teaching and Research in Higher Education in Adelaide on Tuesday August 9. As you saw for yourself, the workshop was a great success. I have written off to Canada to purchase the Mac Concordancing Program you pointed out to us to try to apply your approach to our language development support.

Workshop participants came from the University of Adelaide, the University of South Australia (two different Units) and Flinders University as well as the Adelaide Institute of TAFE. I enclose a list of all the participants and have included details of your Hong Kong address as well as your e-mail and fax. I wonder if you could let me know both whether these details are correct, and whether you would like me to send this information on to all the participants.

I would like to add that I thoroughly enjoyed the evening with you and Carmen and I thank you again for a very enjoyable dinner in the Chinese restaurant in Unley. Thank you also for your little parting gifts to Margaret and me. The lovely motif on the key rings will continue to remind us of your visit and serve to focus us on Hong Kong.

A cheque for $585 - to reimburse you for your air fare and accommodation - is being sent off to you by our Finance Section this Friday, August 26. It should reach you at your Canberra address on Monday or Tuesday, just before you leave!

I look forward to being in contact with you by e-mail when you return to Hong Kong.

All the best,

Ursula McGowan
